Subject: List of candidates for the post of Judge in the European Court of Human Rights in respect of the Republic of San Marino – Election procedure

Dear Sir,

Following the resignation of Judge Antonella MULARONI, the post of judge in the European Court of Human Rights in respect of the Republic of San Marino has been vacant since 1 October 2008. On 22 September 2008, the Government of San Marino, being aware of the need to replace the judge as quickly as possible but wishing above all to ensure full compliance with the principles of democratic procedure, transparency and non-discrimination in identifying and choosing candidates for the post, published in the national press and on the Internet, and communicated to the relevant sectors and professionals, a call for candidatures to draw up a list of three candidates for submission to the Parliamentary Assembly of the Council of Europe.

Following the expiry of the deadline for the submission of candidatures (15 October 2008), the Government of San Marino on 3 November 2008 drew up the following list of candidates (in alphabetical order):

- Mr Guido BELLATI CECCOLI
- Ms Kristina PARDALOS
- Ms Giorgia UGOLINI

The Government of San Marino believes that each of the three candidates possesses the necessary qualities for holding the post of judge in the Court, in full compliance with the requirements set out by the Parliamentary Assembly and of Article 21 of the European Convention on Human Rights (high moral character, legal skills, professional experience, language proficiency, age limit, etc). In the event of their being elected to the Court, each of the candidates undertakes to take up permanent residence in Strasbourg and to end any activity incompatible with the necessary independence and impartiality or the demands of their office.

Please find enclosed the curricula vitae of the three candidates drafted in one of the Council of Europe's two official languages in line with the model adopted by the Parliamentary Assembly on 24 September 1999.

In the light of the above, I should be most grateful if you would submit these candidatures for consideration by the relevant bodies of the Parliamentary Assembly, in particular the sub-committee of the Committee on Legal Affairs and Human Rights so that the candidates may be invited for interview by the said sub-committee. If the conclusions of the sub-committee are favourable and if it suits you, the Parliamentary Assembly might then consider electing the judge during its next plenary session, to be held from 26 to 30 January 2009.

Yours faithfully,

(signed)

Fiorenzo Stolfi
Minister for Foreign and Political Affairs
